

DERON L. SUGG

Deron joined the firm in 2005. He graduated with an A.B. in Political Science Magna Cum Laude with honors from the University of Missouri in 1997. While at MU, he was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa honor society, tapped into QEBH and Mortar Board, and served as Speaker of the Student Senate. He received his Juris Doctorate from MU in 2000.

Deron began his legal career with the law firm of Sawnsen Midgley in Kansas City, Missouri. After running for public office and spending three years working for a private company, he joined our law firm. His practice focuses on general civil litigation, real estate, municipal, juvenile and criminal law. He currently serves as the Prosecuting Attorney for the City of Festus, Missouri.

Deron is a member of the Missouri Bar, Jefferson County Bar Association, Missouri Association of Trial Attorneys (MATA) and Jefferson County Young Lawyers Association.

